

A Sudden Change

In the weather always brings disastrous results. It checks the circulation, closes the pores of the skin and throws the blood of the body back upon those delicate organs, the kidneys. Then come headaches, colds, coughing, sneezing and the thousand troubles so annoying and often dangerous.

The kidneys are the most delicate organs of the body and almost the first to suffer, whether in men or women. To keep them in order means perfect health more than anything else conceivable; to allow them to become disordered means certain disease or death. Do you know that there is but one great remedy for kidney troubles, and that is Warner's Safe Cure? This fact is admitted by the best scientific and medical skill throughout the world, and the great evolution it has wrought in curing complicated kidney troubles, female diseases and even Bright's disease, and in preventing the evil effects of the season upon the kidneys has justly made it the most popular of modern remedies. Your druggist can certainly supply you with it, and if you are wise, you will not be without it, especially during this season.

THE INTELLIGENCER

IN A CLEAR AND PERSPICUOUS MANNER

IT IS "BUCK" SURE.

Von Der Ahe Consents to Buckenberger Taking the Franchise

OF THE WHEELING BASE BALL CLUB

In the New Inter-State League—Hamilton and Dayton Have Been Admitted and the Circuit is Now Complete—Stronger Than the Old Tri-State League—Last Night's Bowling. The Races Yesterday—Other News of Sport and Athletics.

ORD comes from all along the line that the managers of the eight Inter-state base ball league teams are getting a decided move-on and the indications are that the new organization will be the best ever organized in this vicinity, eclipsing even the old Tri-state organization in its best days. The following special dispatch received by the INTELLIGENCER last night from Manager George L. Moreland, of the Steubenville club, will be delightful reading for the Wheeling "fans," who have been banking on the probable connection of Buckenberger with the team:

"I have just received word that Buckenberger has been granted permission by President Chris Von Der Ahe, of St. Louis, and that he would have no objection to 'Buck' running the Inter-state league club in your city. With this assurance Wheeling 'fans' can now depend on having a first class team under Buckenberger, as president, and Will White, as manager. All the managers are now hustling. Word has been received that Charles Fast, of Buffalo, N. Y., will take the Hamilton club, while M. B. McKean, of Grafton, Ohio, brother of the Cleveland short stop, will manage Dayton. With these teams taken the league is now complete with the following cities: Columbus, Hamilton, Dayton, Canton, Akron, Mansfield, Wheeling and Steubenville. GEORGE L. MORELAND.

The action of Von der Ahe in consenting to Buckenberger taking the Wheeling franchise will, more than anything else, encourage the projectors of the other teams to go ahead with plenty of ginger and secure winning teams. The possibility of Wheeling not being in the league was looked upon with disfavor by the managers in the other cities, the West Virginia town being considered about the best ball town on the circuit. The circuit, by the way, is by far the strongest of which Wheeling was ever a part. It was important that Hamilton and Dayton be secured on the western end; both are good ball towns, and with Columbus and Mansfield, will make the western circuit the strongest section of the league, taken as a whole. In the east are Akron, Canton, Steubenville and Wheeling, and if the first two named show up with a genuine revival of base ball sentiment, the east will be very strong. Steubenville always takes hold of athletics and sports in a whole-hearted fashion that insures success, and everybody knows that Wheeling is one of the best ball towns of its size in the country. Taken altogether, the prospects of the new league are very bright, and it is very probable that the work of signing players, etc., will be well in hand before the first meeting of the league takes place in Steubenville next month.

He is Confident.

Manager George L. Moreland, of the Steubenville team of the Inter-State league, feels confident his team will beat out the Wheeling aggregation. In a letter to a friend here he says he is willing to wager Manager Will White, of the local team, a suit that the Ohio team will beat out Wheeling in the pennant race. Perhaps "Billie" will accommodate the Steubenvillians.

HE Nameless and Columbia teams of the Wheeling Bowling League played two scheduled games last night at the Museum alleys. The Columbia people made things interesting for Nameless in both games, but the superior finishes of the latter were too much for their opponents and allowed them to win the two. Nameless is starting the second series in great shape and Captain Carenhauer avows his aggregation is out for the pennant. Perhaps LaBelle and The Brownies will have something to say on this score, and, possibly, some of the other teams.

In the first game neither team made big scores, Campbell's 152 being the best individual effort. The score in detail:

Nameless—Campbell 152, Bowlen 130, Wells 118, Atkinson 119, Riddle 125, Carenhauer 122; total 776.

Columbia—O. Weisgerber 110, Amick 125, Bowdwing 123, J. Weisgerber 121, Bishop 114, Seibert 146; total 742.

Buyers, however, are not yet stocking up heavily with raw material. Now that there has been opportunity to observe the operation of the free wool bill, the feeling is general that wool at its present range of prices is about as low as can be expected, and dealers are not disposed to consent from recent rates. Prices are as follows: Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces XX and XX and above 17½c; territory wools, Montana fine and the medium 16½c; new medium 16½c; Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, etc., fine and fine medium 16½c; No. 2 fine medium 16½c; California wool, spring northern 16½c; Oregon wools, eastern fair 16½c.
